World Travel Market Roundup

-Eurostar moves from Waterloo and now leaves from St Pancras cutting the journey time to 2hours 15minutes

St Pancras International station is now open and looks magnificent

-The Government will lift the one cabin-bag rule at UK airports from January 7, but the restriction will not end at many airports for weeks or months. Airports will have to apply individually to the Department for Transport for permission to lift the restriction and must prove they have the new technology, increased staff or changed procedures to cope with additional bags without compromising security.

- Luton airport will have new flights to Cyprus and to Egypt next Summer. New destinations are: Larnaca, Paphos and Sharm el Sheik.

Fantastic train journeys (main subject of the hour). Ever wanted to go on a grand tour by private train? The age of the train has returned!
