Double S Travel Worldchoice - Celebrating Twenty Three Years of service to residents and businesses in the South Bedfordshire area 1985 – 2008

Try to do things the same as you would here at home.

Do not openly display or take with you expensive jewellery,

Do not openly display mobile phones or digital cameras.

Put your passport and any valuables you do take, in the safe.

Do not take wads of cash and leave your debit card at home. Take only what you will need for the first few days and use a cash passport to draw cash as you want it

Put your camera and phone out of view when not in your room – especially if it is a ground floor room or apartment.

Always get a written report from the police if you have something stolen, you insurance will not settle a claim if you don't.

Always look at the fco website before travelling to find out what safety and security advice is being given by our Government.
